

Subtle Effect in Hosiery Display The Latest Thing

New Era in "Optical Illusions" to Begin; French Modiste Gives Views.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The subtle era in hosiery display, dates from today in Chicago.

The long skirt you see trailing down the boulevard is not a long skirt at all but merely an optical illusion.

Madame Homic came all the way from Paris to talk such things over with the Fashion Art league, now in session here.

"Ah, 'twould be such a pity to cover up these pretty American girls," sighed the madame. "It is well that fashion won't permit."

"The new fall skirt is not lengthy. It is just long part of the way around and the rest is tucked up in an envelope fold with a bit of connoisseurship that takes one into all the delicate secrets that might have been concealed."

"It is much prettier for a girl to pull a long skirt up a few inches and reveal a tatter of billows lingerie than to have a short dress on. Subtlety's the thing!"

"This is the feature of the new American style. They have part of a hem caught up in a teasing drapery."

"The skirts are really as long as those now worn but to get the idea of length there is always something hanging down. Sometimes it's a thin whisker of monkey fur, perhaps an overskirt of beads and oftentimes the odd bit of lace."

Years ago, according to Madame Homic, short skirts had to go because the hosiery makers did not have a fascinating product.

"But, mon enfant, look there!" exclaimed the madame, pointing to her models. "It's so different now. How fascinating. Am I not correct?"

She was.

AUTHORIZE LOWER LIVESTOCK RATES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—One of the biggest single steps for the relief of western livestock raisers was taken today by the interstate commerce commission in authorizing reduced rates on livestock products from territory west of the Mississippi river to Chicago.

The new rates, which range from one cent to 50 cents per 100 pounds become effective Tuesday, Sept. 20.

The new rates are expected also to have a helpful effect on the cost of living because of the price reductions that will be possible in the manufactured products as the results of cuts in the prices of raw materials.

FOOD SHIPMENTS ARRIVE AT RIGA

RIGA, Sept. 13.—The first food shipments of the International Russian relief administration are now arriving here. The supplies will be forwarded to Russia at once if Russian freight cars are available. The Latvian government will not allow the car of the Latvian railways to cross the frontier into Russia. Dr. Nasen, head of the International commission who has been in Geneva, according to his Russian agreement with the League of Nations, is expected here shortly to supervise the distribution.

J. A. Webster, one of the International relief workers is preparing to go into the Russian famine district to distribute the gifts of the London "save the children" fund.

ARBuckle's WIFE "STICKS BY HIM"

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Mina Durfee, former movie star and wife of Roscoe Arbuckle, issued a statement today while preparing to leave for San Francisco, declaring her determination to "stick by him to the finish."

Mrs. Arbuckle, who has not appeared in the films for two years, said that she and her husband separated by mutual agreement, but that no court action was ever contemplated and that "our past differences are forgotten now."

"I am sure my husband is an innocent victim of this terrible affair and I am going to California to be with him until he is cleared," she said.

REPORT QUITTING OF LEON TROTSKY

PARIS, Sept. 13.—Trotsky has resigned as soviet war commissariat, according to unconfirmed wireless reports from Moscow via Riga today.

Always remember that today's burdens will last only through today.

Absence from church was a punishable offence in the 17th century.

FAILED TO SEE BABE IN ACTION

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Sir John Simon, former British secretary of state for home affairs, carried a poignant regret back to England when he sailed on the Aquitania today. He has not been able to see Babe Ruth in action.

Speaking today of his five weeks visit to the New World—during which he attended the American Bar association convention in Cincinnati and the Canadian Bar association assemblage in Ottawa—Sir John said:

"We're sailing today and it's too late."

"For what?" he was asked.

"To see your—or—Babe Ruth perform."

Sir John was tendered a farewell dinner last night by the New York Bar association.

REAL VALUE FOR MONEY. LONDON.—George Howlett bought a suit of clothes when he was married. Nothing unusual about that except that he is still wearing it—and he's 88 years old and has been married 65 years.
